

Steven Reschly sdr@truman.edu BH257 x4648

has been at Truman since 1994. He obtained his Ph.D. from the University of Iowa, and also holds an M.A. from the University of Northern Iowa, an M.Div. from Goshen Biblical Seminary, and a B.A. from Goshen College. Dr. Reschly's teaching interests include American social history, women's history, and frontier and west. His research involves a 19th-century Amish community in Iowa, and gender relations in Amish and related groups in 1930s Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. He is a member of the American Historical Association, Organization of American Historians, Social Science History Association, Agricultural History Society, Society for Historians of the Gilded Age and Progressive Era (SHGAPE), Western Historical Association, and Rural Women's Studies Association.